Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Conduct thorough and expeditious review of information from a wide range of intelligence sources and disciplines for accuracy, deception, relevance, and timeliness, and evaluate for inclusion in specific intelligence reports.
- • Research and produce daily intelligence reports that provide all-source, multi-agency intelligence and situational awareness support by summarizing threats to the U.S. and its interests worldwide.
- • Coordinate the sharing of intelligence reports and information with Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) leadership, senior policymakers, Intelligence Community (IC) and Department of Defense (DoD) partners, state partners, and other intelligence consumers in a manner that meets their specified requirements.
- • Promote the sharing of information and knowledge from intelligence reports by effectively recognizing, valuing, building, and leveraging diverse and collaborative networks within ODNI and across the IC.
- Develop and continually expand personal expertise on a full range of current intelligence and policy issues and achieve a reputation as a subject matter expert on the information contained in intelligence reports as well as the production and distribution of this information.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements
